

I urge the commission not to allow one company to monopolize our airwaves in their June 2 vote, by voting not to let one company own more than 35% of a market. I have satellite TV, but get the "best" information off the free airwaves of PBS. I will definitely drop subscription pay TV if you allow media companies to merge even more, Viacom and AOL Time Warner already own almost everything.